DIANE ERICSON

Coming in January 20-21, 2006!
We don't know what she'll be doing yet but whatever it is it will be beautiful, creative and fun!

Peggy Sagers says...

Don't think 'FIT' think 'LCD' - Length, Circumference and Depth. Ask some of the people who went to her workshop to tell you how to use this idea when trying to adjust patterns.

---THREADS THAT BIND---

What a way to start 2005. Our first major decision had to be to cancel the January meeting because of the weather. I hope all of you got to use the time to do some sewing. I'm hearing of some creations being made from the fabrics that were won at the December Tea. Wasn't that fun? Or if you weren't sewing maybe you were cleaning out your sewing stash, getting ready for the Fabric Carnival March 12th. I always find something at Fabric Carnival that has to come home with me so I had better find a place to put it. BTW I recently heard that if you couldn't remember where you had put something that you didn't have to count it as part of your stash. Hmmm!

A Yahoo group has been created for our chapter. ASGwichitaks. If you have never joined an online chat group they can be fun. It's a good way to keep in touch with each other between meetings or for those that can't regularly attend meetings just to keep in touch. Eventually the site will have a membership directory as well as a library list. There is also a place to post pictures. I'm learning how all this works as we go, so if anyone out there has any experience being moderator of a group your advice would be greatly appreciated. I had instructions to set up the group, and that all worked great. Then I tried to send messages and it didn't recognize me. I sent out invitations to join and got kicked off line. Modern technology!!! If you haven't joined yet go to Yahoo groups and join, or let me know and I will send you an invitation. Then all you have to do is reply and follow the instructions. The group is for our ASG chapter members only.

Notions just came in the mail. Be sure to pull your Jo-Ann discount card.

Be sure to read the article on the Spring Challenge in this newsletter. Then dig into your stash of Independent Pattern Companies patterns and find a project. I had a jacket made from a LJ Designs pattern ready to wear to the January meeting. Will I wear it in February? Or will I get one finished from the Peggy Sagers workshop? Come to the February meeting and see.

Sew Happy and Happy Holidays!

Independent Pattern Company Review Spring Challenge 2005

How many times have you purchased an unusual pattern from an independent pattern company, took the pattern home and never made it? Now is your chance. Make the pattern. Bring or wear it to our Spring Tea, April 5th. We will show our creations and give a short report on how we feel about the pattern. (Would you make it again? Were the instructions adequate? Etc.) If you don't have a pattern in your stash that you want to use following is a list of companies that you might want to try. Most of these companies have a web site. Many of them are listed either in Notions or Threads. Most of them are available locally if not in stock by special order. Good Luck and Fun Sewing.

2005 Election Highlight

This fall many of our Board positions are up for reelection. We will be showcasing one board position each newsletter to let you know what that person does and to tempt you to fill their shoes in 2006. Open positions for 2006 are President, VP, Treasurer, Librarian/Historian, Membership, Newsletter, Education, Community Service, Publicity/Retail Liaison, Special Events and Hospitality

NEWSLETTER

This position is responsible for publishing a newsletter 6 times a year. The Guild provides 'Print Shop', you supply your home computer. A scanner is helpful but not necessary. You are also provided with the most recent copy of the newsletter on disk so you do not need to reinvent the wheel, you only need to plug in and replace with your new copy. Board members and general members provide articles and reports that can be included and the Newsletter chair writes some announcements and articles also.

The newsletter chair is also responsible for getting ads. The vast majority of our advertisers re-up each year and just need to be contacted by mail and in person to sign their contract and get their ad for the year. A few times during the year we have some one time only advertisers (twice in 2004).

The chair takes the newsletter to the printer (an account is already set up) and picks it up when ready. The Board helps to assemble & label the newsletter at the board meeting. I find I spend about 9 concentrated hours doing the newsletter spread over a week. Contact Sondra at 943-9813 if you would like further information.

Membership Expiration Date

Be sure to check your membership expiration date on your newsletter label. You should receive a renewal notice and form from the National office about 2 months before the expiration date, but if you don't you can still send in your renewal. Notify the national office if you have an address change as our address labels come from them. Not sure what to do? Contact any officer.

Remember our Retailer's

Following is a list of retailers, and the discounts they offer to ASG members on regularly priced fabric and notions. Remember, to receive your special ASG discount, show your membership card at the cutting table, when purchasing fabric or at the cash register, before purchases are entered.
