Sewing's a Brees.....

As I am closing out my second 4-year term, and yes it feels like forever! I want to thank everyone who has served on the Chapter Advisory Board (CAB), both past and present members. As this is a volunteer organization, we could not do it without your assistance. There are many of you, and would not want to forget anyone, so know that your assistance is much appreciated.

Betty

Kay has been in ASG for 11 years. She lives in Cheney, KS, but became a "Snowbird" between November through April when she goes to Yuma, AZ. That is why we are co-sharing the President's position. Teresa will act as president when Kay is not here.

Teresa has been in ASG since 2019. She started helping with Gown Town and Community Service shortly after joining. We have many great community service projects to offer and she loves contributing to those projects. Her favorites are hand embroidery, machine embroidery and learning to make her own clothes that fit correctly.
